

SHE FINDS HER MISSING HUG

That's the Name of This Man, Who Left His Wife in Chicago and Ran Off with Another Woman.

HE TOOK HIS CHILD, TOO.

Real Wife Traced Him to His New Home in Williamsburg To-Day and Had Him Arrested—She Will Take Back Only the Little Hug.

After four months of effort, Mrs. Victor Hug, of No. 883 North Oakley avenue, Chicago, found her husband and her former best friend, Mrs. Kate Pennebach, living together at No. 47 North Fourth street, Williamsburg, to-day. Detectives Dolan and Hayes were with her at the time. They arrested Hug and later he was held in the Lee Avenue Court.

Up to last February, according to Mrs. Hug, she lived in comparative happiness with her husband and her son, Victor, Jr., who is five years of age. Mrs. Pennebach, a neighbor, was a frequent caller at her house. Hug is an Alsatian. So is Mrs. Pennebach.

"They made love in German before my eyes," says Mrs. Hug. "They planned to elope in German in my hearing. When I would ask them what they were talking about they would laugh at it and say 'Listen to her; she wants to know what we are talking about.'"

Husband and Child Gone.

Mrs. Hug knew what the conversations that she could not understand meant when she returned home from a shopping trip one day and found her husband and little son missing. She went to tell Mrs. Pennebach about it and ran against Mr. Pennebach, who announced that his wife and his little daughter Catherine had disappeared.

Hug and the woman came directly to this city. He had no difficulty in securing employment as an expert machinist and in a few weeks was put in charge of a big plant in Williamsburg.

Through the union in Chicago to which Hug remitted dues his wife traced him. She could not learn his street address in this city, but found the name of the concern for which he worked. With this information she went to Chief of Police O'Neill, of Chicago, who gave her a note of introduction to Capt. Formosa, of the Brooklyn Detective Bureau.

Arrested Him on Street.

Mrs. Hug was practically penniless when she got here. Capt. Formosa recommended her to the Ozone Home, a Catholic institution, at No. 46 Concord street, Brooklyn, and started detectives out to trail Hug. They located his house and when he came out to work to-day his wife and the detectives were standing across the street.

The little boy, Victor, followed his father down the stoop and kissed him, saying, "Good-by, papa." This was too much for Mrs. Hug.

Crying "Victor! Victor!" she started across the street. Hug saw her coming and stood as a man petrified, while the little boy with shouts of pleasure ran to meet her. Then Dolan and Hayes performed their duty in the regulation way.

"I don't want my husband back," explained Mrs. Hug, "but I want my husband punished for the way he has treated me."

"Scare" Had Terrible Results.

COSHOCTON, O., June 9.—James Smith, aged fourteen, tried to scare his two brothers, Eugene, aged nineteen, and Albert, aged ten, who were teasing him, and pointed a gun at them. The weapon was discharged, instantly killing Albert and blinding and fatally wounding Eugene.

THE BIG STORE ACTIVITY IN ITSELF

SIEGEL COOPER & CO.

SIXTH AVE. 18th St. 18th St.

For Summer Homes.

ACTIVITY is rife. Thousands of people have their Summer cottages at the seaside or in the country ready, and are now only waiting for the first real spell of torridity to formally open the season. Any number of these we've helped get ready. But there are thousands of others who are still preparing. What to get and where to get it is a serious problem with many, particularly with the thrifty inclined. And it is right here that the importance of shopping at the Siegel Cooper Store naturally asserts itself. Let's see:

REFRIGERATORS—You can't do without one. We sell only the best makes, and we have plenty of every size. Do the biggest business in Greater New York. Buy more than anyone else; can sell lower, therefore.

CHINA AND GLASSWARE—Excellent varieties of good and beautiful Chinaware at exceptionally tempting prices. Do you know our China Store in the Basement as well as your best interests demand? Glassware of every description—at little prices, too.

MATTINGS—Universally favored as a Summer floor covering. We import more Mattings than half a dozen ordinary Department Stores, and we are showing a wonderfully diversified range of fresh Mattings at prices that create favorable comment. Big stocks of Rugs, also.

UPHOLSTERIES—Light Draperies, Screens and such. Ask our Contract Department to quote estimates. Awnings put up at short notice.

GAS AND OIL STOVES—Clean, reliable and safe. You do away with terrors of coal-stove cooking. You can get up a meal in wonderfully quick time with a gas or oil stove. But, of course, you know that.

PICTURES—You will probably want to give your cottage or room an added bit of brightness. You can get a really good picture for very little money by going to the Picture Store on the 3d Floor.

KITCHEN AND BATH NEEDS—Everything you can possibly require. The Basement Store brims over with these essentials. Soaps on the Main Floor and up in the Grocery on the 4th Floor.

To-day's announcements tell of some of the things you will need—many even if you do not own or rent a cottage somewhere. Those who board out of town during the summer likewise have manifold wants.

The special sale of TOILET ARTICLES is particularly interesting.

Special Sale of Toilet Needfuls.

Perfumes, Waters, Soaps and Powders, also Drugs and Medicines, at Exceptionally Low Prices.

At this time of the year the demand for toilet accessories is keenly accentuated. Exposure to sea and mountain winds, or to the penetrating rays of a torrid sun, makes womanhood in general turn to creams, powders, waters and other preparations.

People going away take with them various medicines and drugs to be prepared in cases of emergency. And so we announce this sale now—a time when the demand is so great that the general public is vitally interested.

Every Item Named in This Announcement Will Be On Sale in the Main Aisle and Regular Drug Department To-Morrow.

It will be noticed that the price reductions are wonderfully liberal. This was done purposely so that those purchasing might obtain enough of everything desired to last throughout the Summer. The woman who shares in this opportunity will thank herself more than once later in the season.
